New Direction for Athletics!

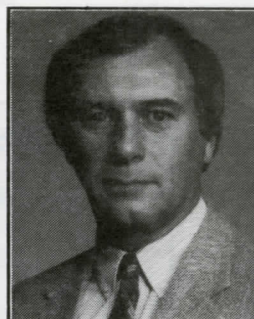

Concordia's Department of Fitness, Recreation and Athletics has changed its structure over the last six months.

As the 90's approach, the Athletic Department will now have two distinct sectors.

They consist of the Program Development Sector and the Services Sector. Paul Arsenault will head the Services area, while Kathy McDonald will be in charge of Program Development.

The 1989 edition of the Stingers will take the field this fall with new found confidence and determination under Head Coach Pat Sheahan. With 23 lettermen and 15 starters returning, there is plenty of dynamic young talent poised for a successful season.

Conference All-Stars like Martin Ferdais (linebacker), Paul Vajda (offensive guard), Stephane Chapados (defensive back), and Ron Aboud (quarterback), should give Stinger fans plenty to cheer about on both sides of the ball.

Basketball Team Gets New Look

The Stinger Men's Basketball team will have a new look for the upcoming campaign.

Former Stinger assistant coach John Dore has taken over the reigns from Doug Daignault. Dore and assistant coach Harvey Liverman have been busy recruiting the last few months.

The Maroon and Gold had one of the most exciting teams in the country last season. If you like fast breaks, slam dunks and the three-point shot—Jump on the Stinger Express.

Eight Stingers Gain All-Canadian Honours

Eight Concordia athletes, including Male Athlete of the Year, Mark Mahon, earned All-Canadian honours during the 1988-89 athletic campaign.

The Best in the Nation

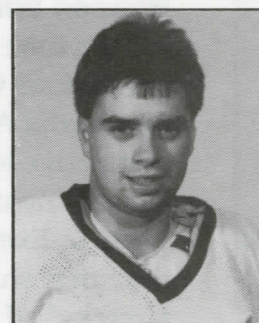

Mahon was the first Stinger to crack the hockey elite in four years. He was also runner up in both the Bauer Hockey New and CIAU Player of the Year balloting. The former Stinger's captain will play professional hockey in Germany this year.

Football offensive lineman Paul Vajda (guard) and Richard McCrory (tackle) were named to the dream team along with slotback Mirco Buth. McCrory was drafted by the Calgary Stampeders this season.

Leading soccer scorer Sophie Drolet spearheaded the Stingers to a birth in the Nationals. Drolet along with National team members Connie Cant and Annie Caron were named All-Canadians. Outstanding rookie goaltender Genaro Angelillo cracked the men's CIAU Team.

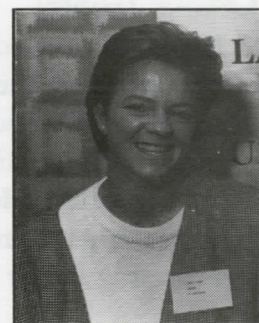

Stinger wrestlers Andy Borodow, David Mendelsohn and Rob Dawson won gold medals at the recent CIAU Nationals. The Stingers will try to grab their sixth National title in seven years this season.

Scorer

Brisson Wins Concordia Gold Medal

Two time Athlete of the Year Thérèse Brisson was recently awarded the prestigious Concordia Gold Medal. The Gold Medal is presented by the Concordia Alumni Association to a graduating student who has displayed distinctive leadership ability through both academic and non-academic achievements. Brisson has won the outstanding commendation of her peers in Exercise Science after graduating with a 3.92 G.P.A. She may be the finest student athlete to pass through Concordia. Dubbed the "Wayne Gretzky" of women's college hockey by the Montreal Gazette, she finished with 161 goals and 135 assists (296 points) in 106 career games.

Laplace Wins Guy Lafleur Trophy

Hockey star Richard Laplace capped off a banner season both on the ice and in the classroom by winning the 1989 Guy Lafleur Trophy. The trophy is awarded to the outstanding scholar-athlete in Quebec University hockey. Laplace, Concordia's Male Athlete of the Year in 1988, finished the season third in O.U.A.A. scoring. He was named a league All-Star for the second consecutive year while maintaining a 3.05 G.P.A. The boucherville, Quebec native will be a big factor for the Stingers this season.

Top Student Athlete

Gamache Hitting New Heights

Alpine Skier Rosanne Gamache had an outstanding season on the slopes and in the classroom last year. Gamache won the QSSF Gold Medal with seven first and three second place finishes on the ski circuit. Her dominance on the slopes coincided with a tremendous year in the Faculty of Commerce & Administration. She finished with a 3.86 G.P.A. and was named Concordia's Top Student Athlete. The Montreal native will return to captain our Provincial Champion Stinger ski squad.

New Stinger Spirit Program

The first-ever Stinger Spirit Program has been initiated for the upcoming varsity season. The program will be run by a committee of student association executives. It will feature student cheering sections, game-day road trips and tailgate parties. Students can gain valuable experience in the publishing of a student sportspaper, marketing, public relations and the execution of promotions involving Stinger athletics.

The Stinger spirit program offers something for everyone. The students who join the program will be given the challenge of sparking the student population's enthusiasm toward Concordia athletics. If you know anyone up to the challenge, phone 848-3850 and speak to Sally.
